

Shipbuilding, Repair and Maritime Career Day Event

NSF-ATE PROJECT

An Educational Event – For Middle and High School Students, Teachers and Counselors

Monday, March 25, 2013 • Ted Constant Convocation Center, ODU

Norfolk, VA • 8:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

For On-Line Registration go to www.sbrcd.org

COME, VISIT US AND EXPLORE THE WORLD OF SHIPBUILDING AND SHIPPING

Career Opportunities Available Due to Aging Workforce

- Salaries $35,000 - $95,000 per year
- Advanced Technology
- Challenging jobs and work environment

Career Paths for Shipbuilding, Repair and Maritime Industry

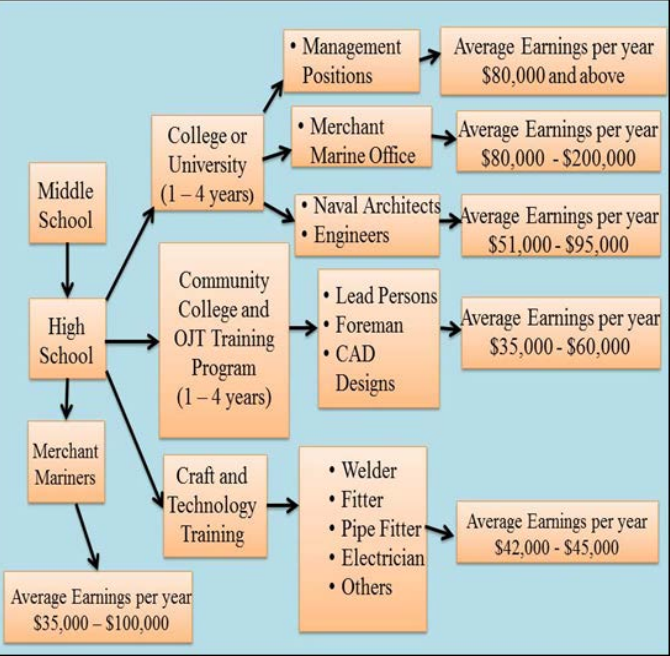

Explore Career Paths in Shipping Industry

Industry Contacts:
 Alan Walker - alan.l.walker@baesystems.com (757) 494-4688
 Caroline Sturgeon - stargazer7176@msn.com (757) 464-6008
 Valerie Fulwood - Valerie.Fulwood@navy.mil (757)396-3814
 Allan Melton - Allan.Melton@hii-nns.com (757) 688-9405

School Contact:
Dr. Sueanne E. McKinney
 Associate Professor of Mathematics Education
 Old Dominion University
 Phone: (757) 683-4197
 Email: smckinne@odu.edu

For general information Contact project PI Dr. Alok K. Verma
 Director, Lean Institute
 Phone: (757) 683 - 3766
 Email: averma@odu.edu

What to look for at the Career Day Event

- Career information on the shipbuilding, repair and maritime industry
- Hands-on activities related to shipbuilding and repair
- Interact with industry professionals
- Information of Educational Programs
- Shipyard Tours
- Simulate shipbuilding and repair activities

